

April 10, 2024

Entertainment Software Association
601 Massachusetts Ave, NW, Suite 300
Washington, DC 20001
Re: Letter of Authority

To Whom it May Concern:

The Entertainment Software Association (hereinafter referred to as "ESA"), having its principal place of business at 601 Massachusetts Ave., NW, Suite 300, West Tower, Washington, DC 20001, is the trade association for the video game industry in the United States. ESA member companies include, but are not limited to: 505 Games, Activision Publishing, Inc., Blizzard Entertainment, Capcom USA, Inc., Electronics Arts (EA), Epic Games, Inc., Konami Digital Entertainment, Microsoft Corporation, Bandai Namco Entertainment Inc., Nintendo of America Inc., Sony Interactive Entertainment, Square Enix, Inc., Take-Two Interactive Software, Inc. ("Take-Two Interactive"), Ubisoft Entertainment, Inc., and Warner Bros. Entertainment Inc. ESA members are the owners of intellectual property, including copyright and trademark rights, associated with their interactive software products. ESA is authorized to represent its member companies in enforcement actions against third parties that infringe or contribute to the infringement of ESA members' intellectual property rights. ESA hereby authorizes MarkScan companies ("MarkScan") to search the internet, online platforms, and/or other needed resources for infringing copies or activities of the intellectual property attached in Exhibit A.

ESA authorizes MarkScan to act as its non-exclusive agent, with direct consent from ESA, for the purpose of intellectual property protection, including: anti-piracy protection; brand protection; and copyright infringement notification, by taking actions on behalf of ESA, including but not limited to the sending of take down notices to website owners and/or Internet Service Providers. This Letter of Authority is valid from the date of this letter until March 31, 2025, and may be expressly revoked by the ESA at any time by written notice (including email). MarkScan may not delegate, or substitute powers granted in this Letter of Authority without prior written consent (including email).

Signed for and on behalf of Entertainment Software Association

Signed: _____

Name: Michael G. Lewis

Title: Vice President, IP Protection and Security, ESA